Join ACA Today!

For over 143 years, ACA has been on the forefront of exerting a positive influence on national correctional policy. Founded in 1870, the American Correctional Association (ACA) is a professional membership association dedicated to the improvement of corrections professionals. ACA's membership consists of individuals and organizations involved in all facets of corrections - including adult and juvenile institutions, community corrections, juvenile justice, institutions of higher learning, and probation and parole located in the United States, Canada, and other nations, as well as over 76 chapters and affiliates representing a wide range of states and professional organizations.

The Association provides its members with educational materials, publications, training, seminars, bi-annual conferences, accreditation services, and a variety of other networking opportunities — not to mention a subscription to the Corrections Today magazine, discounts on publications and conferences, and insurance benefits.

We represent all from the line officer to the warden, from the criminal justice student to the volunteer, or from the probation officer to the day treatment social-worker - all across the spectrum ACA is there.
