Why Should I Become a VCA/ACA Member?

"The mission of the Virginia Correctional Association (VCA) is to provide information, education, and leadership for members and the community to promote an effective justice system. This is an exciting challenge for all correctional professionals. Please join our membership and experience the satisfaction that comes with participation in a professional association. VCA is focused on professional development and growth opportunities for its members. As a member you will have the opportunity to share your knowledge and skills with colleagues and to participate in the ongoing work of our association. You can even have some fun doing it! Join VCA/ACA today!"

The American Correctional Association (ACA) was founded in 1870 and serves as the voice of corrections. There are many career-enhancing benefits which accompany an ACA/VCA Membership.
