Proposal: 2007-12  New Standard

Written policy, procedure, and practice require that ongoing, but not less than semi-annually, consultation takes place as determined by the agency or parent agency with the local Joint Terrorism Task Force (JTTF), or another like agency, on all terrorism matters to include:

- A list of known terrorist inmates in local custody
- Intelligence regarding inmates with suspected terrorist ties
- Information regarding specific incidents, events, or threats affecting the institution or detention facility that have a possible terrorism connection

Comment: Examples of reportable intelligence might include attempts by such inmates to radicalize or recruit among fellow inmates, or efforts to continue contact with terrorist groups in the community. Documentation of the consultations should be determined by agency standards, and may include log books, e-mails exchanged with the JTTF or another like agency, or minutes of telephone calls.

Comment/Action: Approved, with revisions. ALDF standard should to be put in the performance-based format.

Proposal: 2007-13  New Standard

Written policy, procedure, and practice require vetting procedures for all contractors and volunteers providing religious services to inmates, which include comprehensive identifier information to be collected and run against law enforcement indices. If suspect information is returned, such additional vetting should include ongoing consultations with the local Joint Terrorism Task Force (JTTF) on matters which could potentially include a terrorism connection.

Comment: The primary purpose of this proposed standard is to help institutions detect, deter, and interdict efforts by terrorist or extremist groups to radicalize or recruit among inmate populations. Additionally, this proposed standard helps detect other contractors or volunteers with general criminal histories which could potentially pose a threat to institution security. Intelligence indicates that various terrorist groups have specifically targeted US prisons as a possible area for attempted radicalization and recruiting. Additionally, terrorist inmates may attempt to continue contact with their terrorist groups in the community. Contractors and volunteers with ties to such groups may attempt to radicalize or recruit among inmate populations or may attempt to act as illicit communications conduits. Effective vetting protocols for contractors and volunteers, coupled with coordination with each local JTTF, will help detect efforts by terrorist and extremist groups to enter correctional facilities.

Action: Tabled, the Standards Committee believes that this proposal should be broader and should not target a specific group of volunteers.

Proposal: 2007-14 Revision: 4-ALDF-1A-18
Noise levels in inmate housing areas must be contained to facilitate communication by meeting the following minimum criteria: - Noise levels in inmate housing unit dayrooms and cells do not exceed 70 dBA (A Scale) in daytime and 45 dBA (A Scale) when unoccupied, but with lighting and mechanical systems operational and running in their normal mode. (Renovation, Addition, New Construction Only) – The maximum reverberation time (500 Hz) in an unoccupied inmate housing unit dayroom shall be less than 2.0 seconds.

Comment/Action: Tabled, the Standards Committee is unclear of the intent with this proposal and the dBA levels proposed.

Proposal: 2007-15 Revision: ACI 4-4150
