JAMES BRADLEY
Author of Flags of Our Fathers and Flyboys

James Bradley is the author of the 2000 New York Times #1 best-seller, Flags of Our Fathers, which is about the six young soldiers who raised the American flag on Iwo Jima. The photograph of these soldiers is the most reproduced in photographic history. Flags of Our Fathers is currently in movie theaters with Academy Award-winner Clint Eastwood at the helm as director.

Bradley's second book, Flyboys, published in 2003, is the secret story of eight naval aviators who were beheaded on the island next to Iwo Jima. A ninth Flyboy got away — his name is George H.W. Bush.

President of the James Bradley Peace Foundation, which is dedicated to fostering understanding between America and Asia, Bradley is also a motivational speaker who delivers his message, "Doing the Impossible," to audiences across the country.
