Goals of the Colorado Criminal Justice Association

Heighten the level of awareness of the criminal justice community regarding the nature of the American Correctional Association (ACA) and the Colorado Criminal Justice Association (CCJA).

Provide and broker quality staff training for all Colorado law enforcement agencies at little or no cost.

To offer exciting events and activities where members of Colorado's law enforcement, corrections and judicial agencies can network, share information and increase inter-agency cooperation.

The American Correctional Association (ACA) was founded in 1870 and serves as the voice of corrections. There are many career-enhancing benefits which accompany an ACA/CCJA Membership. Being an American Correctional Association/Colorado Criminal Justice Association member can give you access to these services — sometimes at a discount:

Publications

Correspondence Courses
CCJA Quarterly Magazine
Corrections Today Magazine
On The Line Newsletter
Corrections Compendium Journal
Books
Directories
Videos and other training materials

Professional Development

Online Correctional Academy
(OCA) Courses
Training Resources
National & On-Site Workshops
CCJA Annual Training Conference
Technical Assistance
Professional Certification

Conventions

ACA Winter Conference
ACA Summer Congress of Correction

Standards & Accreditation

A system of verification that correctional agencies/facilities utilize to ensure they comply with national standards.

Government Affairs

This department serves as the liaison between the association and decision-makers at the state and federal levels.

ACA's Mission Statement

The American Correctional Association provides a professional organization for all individuals and groups, both public and private that share a common goal of improving the justice system.
