Goals of the South Carolina Correctional Association

- * To promote professionalism and personal improvement in its members.
- * To provide information and forums for the exchange of ideas and opinions to those involved or interested in the fields of institutional or community-based corrections.
- * To promote public awareness of the efforts and issues faced by those engaged in the business of adult and juvenile corrections.
- * To stimulate the creation and encourage the involvement of our association and its members in meaningful juvenile and adult crim prevention endeavors; and
- * To provide opportunities for individuals involved in the broad array of state, local, federal, educational and non-governmental entities concerned with the business of institutional or community corrections to collaborate and interact for their individual enrichment, and to benefit the citizens of South Carolina.

The American Correctional Association (ACA) was founded in 1870 and serves as the voice of corrections. There are many career-enhancing benefits which accompany an ACA/MCA Membership. Being an American Correctional Association/Missouri Corrections Association member can give you access to these services — sometimes at a discount:
