Recertification Process

As a Certified Corrections Professional (CCP), you are part of an elite group of corrections professionals who have become a model of excellence for the field. Re-Certification begins once you become certified. Certified Corrections Professionals (CCPs) are required to continue their education and training and renew their certification after three years. At the end of this period, CCPs submit:

1) A Re-Certification Application

2) A Summary Sheet identifying their Re-Certification Credits

3) Documentation for their Re-Certification Credits

4) The appropriate Re-Certification Fee

5) Applicant and supervisor recertification declarations

The Re-Certification Application may be downloaded at www.aca.org. The instructions are simple and easy to follow. Once the Professional Development staff have evaluated and approved the application and supporting documentation for the re-certification credits, they will mail a letter confirming one’s re-certification, a re-certification certificate, supervisor notification form, and a sample press release that the CCP can take to the local press. A Re-Certification Application will be processed in four (4) to eight (8) weeks. An incomplete application will result in a delay in being re-certified.

* For individuals with a state licensure, documentation of state licensure renewal can be substituted for re-certification credits
† Recertification for non-licensed individuals requires twelve (12) hours of ACA-approved behavioral health-related trainings

Earning Re-Certification Credits

All Re-Certification Credits you earn are to be activities beyond your regular duties and the requirements of your position. If you are unsure about whether an activity qualifies for Re-Certification or need to clarify how many credits you will receive for an activity, contact Professional Development at 703-224-0175 or acaprodev@aca.org.

CCPs may earn up to 50% of their required credits in one category. They are encouraged to ask questions about earning credits for activities that may not be specified. They will be reviewed in the Certification Newsletter.

Certified Corrections Professions may earn Re-Certification Credits through at least the following categories:

1) Training/Education Courses
2) Publishing
3) Conference
4) Discussion Group
5) Committee/Task Force
6) Critique or Assessment
7) Additional Experience/Miscellaneous
Training/Education Courses

All additional experience/miscellaneous activities must be submitted with a detailed description of the event, including how it relates to the field, how it relates to your specific role in Corrections and what your learnings were, along with completed documentation to account for the event.
Revocation of Certification

Certified Corrections Professionals (CCPs) are expected to uphold the highest standards of professionalism and present themselves as role models for their positions. CCPs who are involved in any of the following situations will have his/her certification revoked.

- Violation of the ACA Code of Ethics
- Conviction of any crime
- Demotion for disciplinary reasons
- Involuntary separation from employment

CCPs will be notified of the revocation of their certification, along with their supervisor or former employer. They will have the opportunity to appeal their revocation to the Certification Commission.

Certified Corrections Professionals who have knowledge of any violations committed by another Certified Corrections Professional should contact the Director of Standards, Accreditation, and Professional Development. Integrity is a hallmark of being certified.
Code of Ethics

Certified Corrections Professionals (CCPs) are expected to display unfailing honesty, respect for the dignity and individuality of human beings, and a commitment to professional and compassionate service. To this end, CCPs must adhere to the American Correctional Association’s Code of Ethics.

RESPECT and protect the civil and legal rights of all individuals.

TREAT every professional situation with concern for the welfare of the individuals involved and with no intent to personal gain.

MAINTAIN relationships with colleagues to promote mutual respect within the profession and improve the quality of service.

MAKE public criticism of their colleagues or their agencies only when warranted, verifiable, and constructive.

RESPECT the importance of all disciplines within the criminal justice system and work to improve cooperation with each segment.

HONOR the public’s right to information and share information with the public to the extent permitted by law subject to individuals’ right to privacy.

RESPECT and protect the right of the public to be safeguarded from criminal activity.

REFRAIN from using their positions to secure personal privileges or advantages.

REFRAIN from allowing personal interest to impair objectivity in the performance of duty while acting in an official capacity.

REFRAIN from entering into any formal or informal activity or agreement which presents a conflict of interest or is inconsistent with the conscientious performance of duties.

REFRAIN from accepting any gifts, service, or favor that is, or appears to be, improper or implies an obligation inconsistent with the free and objective exercise of professional duties.

DIFFERENTIATE, clearly, between personal views/statements and views/statements/positions made on behalf of their agency.

REPORT to appropriate authorities any corrupt or unethical behavior in which there is sufficient evidence to justify review.

REFRAIN from discriminating against any individual because of race, gender, creed, national origin, religious affiliation, or any other type of prohibited discrimination.

PRESERVE the integrity of private information; refrain from seeking information on individuals beyond that which is necessary to implement responsibilities and perform their duties; refrain from revealing non-public information unless expressly authorized to do so.

MAKE all appointments, promotions, and dismissals following established civil service rules, applicable contract agreements, and individual merit, rather than personal interest.

RESPECT, promote, and contribute to a work place that is safe, healthy, and free of harassment in any form.
